Product Description Expanded:

www.YourCreativeChild.com is proud to announce the release of Creative Movement for Children, a DVD that will bring a lifetime of benefits to young boys and girls. The content represents a synthesis of a body of work created by Bonnie Boilini Baxter. Bonnie with over 40 years of experience in the field of childhood development and is an award winning pioneer and teacher who has inspired thousands with her technique and spirit. The DVD serves to:

- Foster Creativity
- Build Self-Confidence
- Promote good health and fitness and can serve to fight childhood obesity

This quote we believe is most appropriate:

Bonnie is truly respected in our community and throughout the region . . . Perhaps idolized would be a better word choice! Her expertise with both dance and children is phenomenal and we are thrilled that she is sharing her talents and skills, via DVD, with others. In light of all the research regarding childhood obesity and children being 'plugged in' to computers/TV/games . . . I think the timing of this DVD could not be better.

Terri Kosik

Executive Director, Early Childhood Development Center
Saint Mary's College and the University of Notre Dame

The DVD will educate and inspire children to participate. Structured for repeated use, the techniques will stimulate the imagination, facilitate development of coordination and advance overall fitness for 3 to 5 year old children. The menus are simple, friendly and designed for children. Through the totally engaging presentation of Bonnie Boilini Baxter, children will experience the joy of movement. Creative Movement for Children makes a great gift or purchase for Educators, Parents, Grandparents and those involved in Home School and After School Programs.

Creative Movement for Children, Volume 2 is currently in development.
